

1. Do price and value of care always align?
2. Will safety have a large influence on the price of procedures?
3. Would higher efficiency scores decrease the price of procedures or increase them?
4. How might community engagement influence the price of procedures?
5. How might clinical outcomes influence the price of procedures?
6. What are trends among U.S. states and those insured on public healthcare?
7. Are there patterns between value of care and states with higher public insurance rates?
8. Do hospitals with higher safety scores suffer with efficiency scores?
9. Do states that are more/less urbanized have higher/lower community engagement scores?
10. Do hospitals with higher community engagement scores have higher clinical outcomes scores?